

Giornata di Studi organizzata con il finanziamento di Ateneo per Convegni, Seminari, Workshop - anno 2021 (Alessandro Greco)

In collaborazione con il progetto "Pastoralismo urbano". Sul ruolo economico delle comunità pastorali nei contesti sedentari nel mondo vicino orientale antico e miceneo tra III e II millennio a.C.: modelli a confronto (Lucia Mori)

DIPARTIMENTO DI LETTERE E
CULTURE MODERNE

DIPARTIMENTO DI SCIENZE DELL'ANTICHITÀ

DIPARTIMENTO DI STORIA ANTROPOLOGIA

RELIGIONI ARTE SPETTACOLO

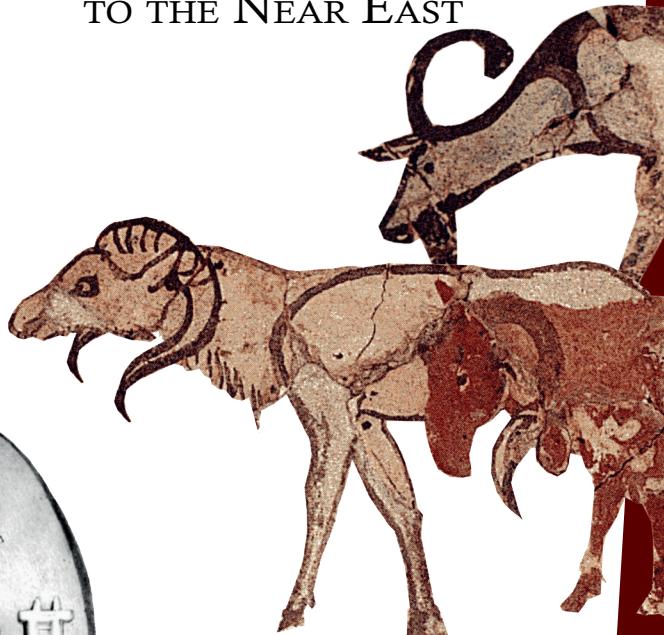

PASTORALISM AND SEDENTARY

URBAN INSTITUTIONS

IN THE BRONZE AGE

FROM GREECE

TO THE NEAR EAST

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA
FACOLTÀ DI LETTERE E FILOSOFIA

2-3 March 2023
Aula Odeion

Thursday 2 March

14.00-14.30

Opening addresses by

Marco Mancini
(Sapienza, Università di Roma)
Director of the Department of
Lettere e Culture Moderne

14.30-15.00: Alessandro Greco, Lucia Mori, Lorenzo Verderame (Sapienza, Università di Roma)
Introduction

Near East

Chairman: Marcella Frangipane
(Sapienza, Università di Roma)

15.00-15.30: Lorenzo Verderame (Sapienza, Università di Roma)
Setting pastoralism in its earliest historical evidence: the case of third millennium Mesopotamia

15.30-16.00: Marta D'Andrea (Sapienza, Università di Roma)
Urban, rural, and pastoral relations in the Levantine Early Bronze Age: issues and prospects

16.00-16.20: coffee break

16.20-16.50: Lucia Mori (Sapienza, Università di Roma)
What happened to the "dimorphic society"? A perspective from the Syrian Jezira in the Middle Bronze Age

16.50-17.20: Assaf Yasur-Landau (University of Haifa)
Eric H. Cline (The George Washington University)
Urbanization in the Southern Levant as an adaptive process and the role of pastoralists

17.20-17.50: Erez Ben-Yosef (Tel Aviv University)
Iron Age Edom as a cautionary tale for archaeological interpretations of ancient Near Eastern nomads

17.50-18.20: discussion

Friday 3 March

Africa and Asia

Chairman: Alessandro Greco
(Sapienza, Università di Roma)

10.00-10.30: Juan Carlos Moreno Garcia (CNRS France)
Pastoralism, landscape uses and institutions in Bronze Age Egypt (3100-1100 BC)

10.30-11.00: Massimo Vidale (Università di Padova)
Lapis lazuli bead making at Shahr-i Sokhta as part of a seasonal circuit run by nomadic communities. Unexpected results on the honourable tracks of V.G. Childe

11.00-11.20: coffee break

Greece and islands

Chairman: Anna Sacconi
(Sapienza, Università di Roma)

11.20-11.50: Alessandro Greco (Sapienza, Università di Roma)
Shepherds and borders. Some considerations on territorial control in the Mycenaean world: the case of the kingdom of Knossos

11.50-12.20: Matilde Civitillo (Università degli Studi della Campania Luigi Vanvitelli)
On the Knossian 'shepherds': their names and their roles in the Mycenaean economy and administration

12.20-12.50: Tina Kalantzopoulou (Belgian School at Athens)
Yiannis Papadatos (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens)
The economy and the spatial organisation of socio-political structures of the Second Palace period: A local view from the south-eastern slopes of Dikte Mountain on East Crete

12.50-13.20: discussion